

Glastonbury Abbey Excavations Members will be pleased to learn that the plan of the Abbots Hall at Glastonbury excavated during 1978 and 1979 is now being laid out and the former walls marked by blocks placed in the Lawn. This will make an important addition to enable visitors to see the position this building occupied in its relation to the other monastic buildings at Glastonbury.

Members are especially reminded that our future weekly meetings will be held on Wednesdays unless otherwise advised.