

Church including going up the Bell Tower and learning of the history of bellringing in the village.

From the Church we will stroll around the Village for a mind's eye view of the village in bygone times, by use of the sights that remain and archive material. Tea will be laid on either in the Village or at the Organisers house which is 3 miles away in High Littleton. The day should end at 17.30.

Winter Events 1997-98

The venue will again be The Bath Royal Literary and Scientific Institution, 16-18 Queen Square, Bath. All lectures begin at 7.30pm and the programme will be as follows:

9th October- Mr Peter Leach, Director of Field Archaeology Unit, University of Birmingham will speak on Romans and Britons along the Fosseway.

13th November- Our Director of Excavations, Jayne Lawes, will give a progress report on the excavations at Stratton-on-the-Fosse, and this will be followed by the Society's Annual General Meeting.

11th December-Mr Nigel Nayling of the Glamorgan-Gwent Archaeological Trust has called his talk "Between the Devil and the deep blue sea, the medieval wreck from the Magor Pill, in context".

8th January- Mr John Coates, Naval Architect, will speak about "The basis of the Greek trireme experiment".

12th February- Dr A. J. Parker from the Department of Archaeology, University of Bristol will speak on "The Winterstoke Project: the archaeology of northwest Somerset".

12th March- Dr Juliet Rogers, Senior Research Fellow from the Department of Medicine, University of Bristol will speak to us on "Palaeopathology".

-----